
TECHNICAL BULLETIN

Pin Knot

Pin knots are knots that are less than ½" in diameter and can occur in any species of wood. Pin knots are sometimes found alone or in small clusters. Pin knots may be open, as in the image below, or closed. Pin knots are considered a wood characteristic and not a defect unless they are greater than ½" in diameter and open.

